EXECUTIVE ORDER

ESTABLISHING THE OPERATIONS COORDINATING BOARD

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes, and as President of the United States, and pursuant to the authority conferred by and subject to the provisions of section 214 of the Act of May 3, 1945, 59 Stat. 134 (31 U.S.C. 691), it is hereby ordered as follows:

Section 1. There is hereby established the Operations Coordinating Board, hereinafter referred to as the Board. The Board shall be composed of the Under Secretary of State, who shall be the Chairman of the Board, the Deputy Secretary of Defense, the Deputy Director of the Foreign Operations Administration, the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, and a Special Assistant to the President designated by the President. The Board shall report to the National Security Council and shall be deemed to be an agency within the structure of the National Security Council.

Section 2. The Special Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs may attend any meeting of the Board. The Director of the United States Information Agency (provided for in Reorganization Plan No. 8 of 1953) shall advise the Board as the Board may request. The Board shall invite the said Director, and appropriate representatives of other Federal departments and agencies to attend meetings of the Board when the subjects under discussion bear directly upon the responsibilities of the said agency, department, or agencies, respectively.

Section 3. (a) The National Security Council having recommended a national security policy, the President having approved it, and the President having assigned to the Board the duties and responsibilities for the execution of such policy, the Board shall:

(1) coordinate the development by the departments and agencies of detailed operational plans to carry out the approved policy, (2) assure the timely and coordinated carrying out of such plans, (3) initiate new proposals for action within the framework of national security policies in response to opportunity and changes in the situation, and (4) assure that each project or action is so executed as to make its full contribution to the particular climate of opinion the United States is seeking to achieve in the world.

(b) In carrying out the duties set forth in section 3(a) hereof, the Board shall assign detailed operational planning responsibilities to the departments and agencies; examine the resulting plans for adequacy and for consistency with national security policy and with each other; coordinate and follow up on the execution of such plans; and from time to time make progress reports to the National Security Council.

(c) The Board shall perform such other functions as the President may from time to time assign to it.

Section 4. There shall be under the Board an executive officer thereof with the title "Executive Director," who shall be appointed by the President, and who shall receive such compensation as is authorized or permitted by law, but in no event at a rate in excess of $_____ per annum. The Executive Director shall: (1) determine the agenda for and present material for discussion at Board meetings, subject to the approval of the Chairman, (2) supervise the work of the staff of the Board, (3) maintain the flow of work to the Board, the standards of presentation, and the quality of the staff work, (4) insure, in the name of the Board, that its decisions are put into effect, (5) in the event of a lack of progress in carrying out a responsibility that has been assigned to the Board, bring the matter to the attention of the National Security Council, after consultation with the Board, with recommendations for appropriate action, (6) prepare for the consideration of the Board reports to the National Security Council, (7) maintain liaison with the Special Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs in order to insure coordination of the Board's work with the activities of the National Security Council, (8) appoint, subject to the approval of the Board, necessary employees of the Board, and (9) perform such other duties as the Board may from time to time direct.
